

CR200 CLEARRING AMPLIFIED TELEPHONE RING SIGNALER

Did you just miss another important call?!

Your telephone rang, did you hear it? If not, you need this telephone ring signaler. This Loud & Clear Phone Ringer makes missing a call a thing of the past.

Simply connect it to your telephone and when you receive a call the bright flashing strobe and the extra loud ringer are activated. It is guaranteed to grab your attention. You can also purchase the optional vibrating pad so you don't miss those important telephone calls when you are sleeping or if you need a silent signal that the phone is ringing. Place the vibrating pad under your mattress or pillow and when the telephone rings the pad vibrates to wake up even the deepest sleeper.

This unique vibrating pad makes each call a wake-up call. Simply connect the vibrating pad to the ClearSounds amplified ringer, place it under the pillow or mattress and when a call comes in, the vibrating pad shakes. It's simple, smart and super inexpensive.
